In the tradition of the gladiatorial games
....it was a battle to the death! "Cricket was the winner"

Twas under an angry and brooding sky on Saturday morning that an eclectic group of people gathered at the Aub Cork Oval. They were varied in their demograph and lethal in their desire - so the gods of cricket placated the weather and play got under way promptly at ten.

There was only going to be one winner today and that was Cricket (well - a somewhat gladiatorial, perverted and extreme form of the game at least!)

Much had been said about this match before even the first ball was bowled. Rumours and allegations abounded - had the match been fixed? Had Vince Carbery (the Umpire) refused to be drug tested? Would half of Andrew Powell's celebrities be able to even find Maleny?

Showgrounds from the first ball.

The game was on.

Andrew Powell's team batted first and were at an immediate distinct disadvantage - especially with the speed with which the Umpires made their decisions.

They had never seen decisions made without eight committees, six sub committees, a feasibility study, a steering committee and a four year timeframe! However they soon learnt the ropes and chalked up a respectable 149.

All their batsmen got a start but it was some powerful hitting from Matthew Howard (23), Nugget (29) and Tim Dwyer (31) that were the backbone of their innings.

Captain Powell chipped in with a nifty 14.

The pick of the Maulers bowlers

All these questions were promptly dispatched to the boundary of history as the sound of leather against willow resounded around the

Council wants community visionaries

Sunshine Coast Council is calling for interested Range residents to nominate for the Maleny Community Precinct Advisory Group to help ensure the precinct develops in line with the community's vision.

Sunshine Coast Community Policy and Programs portfolio holder and division five councillor Jenny McKay said the advisory group will provide an important link between council and the community.

"Council is looking to fill two positions. We are seeking nominations from Range residents to find an independent, skilled and experienced chairperson who can give a three-year commitment to the advisory group.

We are also looking for a second independent local representative with vision, a commitment to the local community and appropriate experience."

The advisory group responsibilities will include:

- * facilitating communications and developing positive working relations between community groups on the precinct
- * evaluating collaborative solutions to issues and development challenges
- * providing advice on lease boundaries and location of trails
- * providing a forum for disputes settlement and provide advice to council on progress of development of the precinct.

Cr McKay said she is very keen to see local community members represented on the advisory group.

"Along with the community members, the advisory group will include representatives from council, Barung Landcare, Maleny District Green Hills Fund, Maleny Golf Club, Friends of Pattermore House and the Maleny District Sport and Recreation Club," Cr McKay said.

"We want to hear from independent people with previous board experience and professional skills which will further compliment the advisory group expertise."

"I invite local residents with an interest in the precinct to nominate."

Nominations close on Saturday 30 October with the advisory group starting formal operations early in 2011.

To nominate please forward a copy of your resume and a letter explaining why you wish to sit on the advisory group to Project Support Officer, Partnerships and Engagement (ED14)

Maleny Bowls Club Results

Tuesday, September 14th, the winners with two wins plus 23 were Di Drew and Ian Hansen. The Touchers went to Steve Lawrence, Gail Turner and Alf Handley. The Jackpot wasn't won and Gail Turner was the lucky Moneyboard winner--- also happened to be her Birthday so was a nice present.

Friday, the Chairman's winning streak came to a shuddering halt when he was thrashed by 17 shots-- 20 shots to three--- at the hands of a couple of young "Sheilas" masquerading as Lady Bowlers skipped by Doug McGufficke. His team mates were Di Drew and Bobbie Wilson. The unfortunate members of Ian's team were Linda Fawkes and Matt Morris.

Two of the Sponsors' Prize winners were present with Faye Petersen taking the Beechwood Bakehouse prize and Helga Falcongreen drawing her own number for Live Life Villages.

Those to miss out were:- Neil McMillan for Supa IGA now worth $140 this week, Reg Darwell for the Full Monte and Phil Crowe for

"Mug of the Week".

The BBQ was quite well patronised and enjoyed by all present. Many thanks to all the helpers who ensured the success of the evening.

Sunday's Charity Day for the Hospital Auxilliary was postponed because of the weather. A decision had to be made before food preparations were carried out and according to the information on Computers, we were going to get rain. Hence, the decision was made after consultation with members of the Hospital Auxilliary and Board Members of the Bowls Club.

Hopefully, next time there will be bright sunshine and a big crowd to support this most worthy of causes.

It seems if you mention Bowls and Bagshaw in the same breath, it will bring rain. Sorry, Tim and Mary, your generosity in sponsoring this day is greatly appreciated.

This week there was the usual Jackpot Pairs/Triples [ if it didn't rain ] Tuesday, Social Bowls Friday and Saturday and the Bill Penney Memorial Day Sunday.

Bill was a most valued Member of this Club as is wife Glad and it is hoped there will be a big attendance on Sunday. Monday, September 27th, is the Men's Monthly Jackpot Pairs at 12.00 for a 12.30 start.

Dates to keep in mind for October are Thursday 7th which is Friendship Day and the following Thursday, October 14th, which is the Live Life Villages sponsored Nominated Mixed Triples Day.

Teams from other Clubs will be coming for this day so get your names down as it's a case of first in best dressed.

There is a sheet at the Club. Prize Money for this day is $180 winners, $120 Runners-up [ both two wins plus highest margins ] and $60 for each round winner. Cost is $45 per team.

Finally, after Bowls Tuesday, October 12th, there is an extraordinary Special Meeting with two items on the agenda:- (1) 2011 Fees and (2) Artificial Playing Surface on our green.

Maleny Netball Results

Tuesday the 14th saw Cru forced to forfeit to Pink Ladies at 6pm due to a shortage of players so a scratch match was played so everyone got a run.

At 7pm the Blackbirds defeated Gilbert Grape who were a player down 33 to 9 with players of the match going to Michelle Corkin, Lena Meneely and Kerri Leddin.

On Wednesday the Green team beat a depleted NFI 28 to 10 with players points going to Jack Winter, Lyndsay Muir, Karen Muir and Morgan Winter.

In the second game Hot Shots defeated Dolphins who were also down players, the final score was 25 to 15 and players of the match were Martin, Brad, Kellie and Lauren.W.

We now have a couple of weeks off for holidays and then hopefully we'll be back with a vengeance as there are only a few games until finals.

Check next weeks reports for an update on points so far.

Range Croquet Club Maleny Results

Friendship Day at Maleny's Range Croquet Club saw a happy band of about forty mallet sport enthusiasts playing less than serious games of Association Croquet, Golf Croquet and Ricochet. Players from all the Sunshine Coast Region's clubs and a sprinkling from Brisbane's Graceville and Windsor clubs took part.

A feature of the day was the number of local mallet makers participating, notably Eric Cree and Bill Bray. Robert and Judith Smyth, recent recruits, used mallets that Robert had made.

The traditional raffle was won by Heather Smith from Noosa, who had to defend her edible prize against a larcenous magpie.

A few brave souls defied the threat of rain on Sunday.

After Val and Vince Carbery and John Thynne had some practice, Val joined Eva Marie Seeto in doubles against Robert Elliot and John Clarke, the men just winning 14-13.

For information about croquet, ring Vince Carbery (5494 2193) or Kath Smith (5499 9101).

Witta Tennis results & News

Last Wednesday it was Witta against Witta on a very windy day at Witta. The Hitters team of Jan Mundt, Kerry Reilly, Mary Moore and Jill Murtagh took the battle to the Wasps team of Janet Hill, Stacey English Michelle Macaree and Maree Hooley. Both teams fought brilliantly and it was touch and go as to which team was going to be victorious. In the end there could only be one winner and that was Witta!

Friday was another wet and windy day at Witta. The Whistlers team of Brenda Warner, Liz Mellish, Aki Lepper and Maree Hooley welcomed the Kawana Stingrays. The Whistlers ran out with the first 4 sets under their belt.

However, the Stingrays came back in the second half and took the next three sets. Nail biting time again as it came down to the last set. At the end the games were all equal at 38 games each. So it came down to the number of sets won.

You can breathe now as the Whistlers won the final set giving them the win at 5 sets to 3. Well done team.

The Kestrels travelled to Mooloolaba to play against the Kawana Kingpins. The team of Pauline Fraley, Annie Stewart, Sue Vockenson and Kerry Reilly fought extremely hard to come off with a very close win: 33-26, 5 sets to 3. Kerry was the star on the day playing beautiful tennis.

Good luck to the Vet teams for this Sunday. The lucky winners of the MEAT raffle were the Limerick family of Graceville, Brisbane.

Social tennis: Monday 8am; Tuesday 7pm; Thursday 8:30am and Saturday 1pm all welcome. Court hire is through the Witta Store 5435 8697 and all other enquiries to 5494 4055.

Some excuses I have heard for playing a bad GOLF shot!

After that last shot, I'm just too embarrassed to try and hit the ball.

All the golf schools I liked were too expensive - so I self-taught.

Before the sex change, I was allowed to hit from the red tee. Its just too difficult to score now.

Damn it! Damn it! Damn it!

Why be a volunteer?

It's not for the money
It's not for the fame,
It's not for any personal gain,
It's just for the love of fellow man,
It's just to lend a helping hand,
It's just to give a tithe of self,
that's something you can't buy with wealth,
It's not medals worn with pride
It's for the feeling deep inside,
It's that reward down in your heart,
It's a feeling that you've been a part of Helping others far and near,
That makes you a Volunteer.

Sports Results for 20th September, 2010

were Jim Cossins (2 for 4) and Euan (Lady Ga-ga) Sweeting (1 for 2). Tight fielding by the Maulers guaranteed the total was chase-able.

The Maulers got away to a flyer with their openers Sam Wilson (32) and Will Kingham (30) laying down a foundation that effectively sank the opposition.

The coup de grace was delivered by Tom Richter (36).

All the Celebrity bowlers toiled long and hard for lean pickings all afternoon and watched the Maulers surpass their score with their first five batsmen.

Things threatened to boil over during the afternoon when Inge Slipper (Man-of-the-Match) let loose with a barrage of underarm bouncers that were unplayable and dangerous.

A shell shocked Jim Cossins was knocked out during of her overs and only the calm heads of the umpires (Colin Dunn and Vince Carbery) stopped things from getting right out of control! But things soon calmed down again.

It was all-over-red-rover by afternoon tea. Maulers Captain, Simon Denver, was presented with the trophy (The Inaugural Dirty Thong Award) and amidst the cheering Andrew Powell vowed to return next year to wrestle it back.

Thanks in abundance must be given to Gail Denver who managed the entire day, Luke Wilkinson - who somehow managed to keep score all day, Paul and Maja - for manning the much frequented bar and to the members of the MDSRC committee and friends who kept the Barbies burning!

But most importantly thank you to all and sundry who sponsored the match and the players.

If the pledges are honoured then over $3000 will have been made for both the National Pyjama Foundation and for the Maleny & District Sports and Recreation Club.
