Pantomime Cast try out their Colourful Costumes!

It was a hectic day on Sunday when all 60 of the cast of the Maleny Players Christmas pantomime "Aladdin" tried out their costumes for the show.

Including all the character changes, the wardrobe team have produced more than 80 different costumes for the cast, including a horse!

With a host of colourful characters, including 15 street orphans aged five and upwards, the Genie of the Lamp, the Princess, and Aladdin himself, market people and courtiers, the costume designers have faced a huge task this year turning the stage of the Maleny Community Centre into the magical look of the streets and Palace of Old Peking.

Said show director David Crewe: "We have a fabulous wardrobe team working with us, and the cast were knocked out by the quality and imagination behind their work. Gwen Delacour, Jools Dumbrell, Nola Daly and Pam Marsden have pulled out all the stops again this year. Our audience is going to be bowled over by the effect."

"Now with just two weeks to go before the opening night, rehearsals are concentrating on the big ensemble scenes where we have virtually the whole cast on stage at the same time, with singing and dancing too.

We have a lot of new people in the show – some who have never been on stage before – plus an enthusiastic and committed backstage team - it's thrilling to see what this community can produce" said David.

Tickets for the show go on sale Dec 1st at the Maleny Visitor and Information Centre in Maple Street. $15 for adults (no concessions) $10 students and under fives free.

The show opens on Friday 16 December at 7.30pm, then on Saturday 17 at 2.30pm and 7.30pm and Sunday 18 at 2.30pm.

Range Croquet Club Maleny Results

Last Thursday saw one game only and it was curtailed by the rain. Roz Pagliarino and John McCarthy managed 12 while Ken Barker and Vince Carbery made 18. The game was still most enjoyable, with Ken making a very good break of four from his first roquet.

On Saturday morning a rewarding coaching session was held. The coach was extremely pleased to see the progress being made.

Sunday's end of year Christmas lunch was very pleasant, with the members sharing their culinary skills off the lawns.

Four hardy souls braved the steamy conditions afterwards with full bellies; John McCarthy and Nick Cram beat Ted Singleton and Kath Smith 26 - 23.

For information ring Vince Carbery (5494 2193) or Priscilla Vickers (5494 3555).

The Range Table Tennis Club.

Costs:

$ 4.00 an adult; $ 3.00 per child, or $ 10.00 per family (2 adults and 1 or more children, or 1 adult and more than 2 children)

Thursday, November 24th, the winners of the in-house Plum Pudding Day Pairs with two wins plus 24 were Eric Drew and Peter Duffy.

The Runners-up with plus 24 in the second game were Di Drew and Roy Gesch. The Touchers went to Bobbie Wilson, Doug Frawley and Ian Hansen.

The Jackpot of $214 was shared by two Pairs who both copped a walloping to gfinish at negative 32. Just shows that you don't have to win the game to win the money. Congratulations, John Wildman, Tony Turner, Jeanette Brown and Cliff Deans. All of you are $53.50 better off. Peter Duffy capped a good day by also winning the Moneyboard.

Friday's winners with plus 19 were youngster Taylor Codey and Men's President Ray Oldfield. Heck, Taylor must have played extremely well to carry Ray to victory. Ray's last win was the same year that Moses played fullback for Jerusalem.

Not a solitary Sponsors' prize winner was at the Club to claim their prizes. The unlucky ones were:- Dale Jacobsen for Supa IGA now worth $40 this week, Sheila Jollow for Live Life Villages also worth $40 this week, fay Carson for Top of the Range Meats and Simon Moore for Maung Thai Restaurant. Curley Petersen was the lucky Moneyboard winner.

Also on Friday' the last quarter-final of the Scott Fawkes Handicap Singles was played resulting in a win for Les Bennet after an enthralling match with Lucy Oldfield. Lucy led 18 shots to 16 but faltered at the final hurdle and allowed Les to take the match 25 shots to 18. The two back-markers, both off negative eight, Les and Ian Hansen, now meet in the top-half draw with the winner to play Bob Wilson in the final.

My money's on Bob Wilson to take the much coveted Title. One omission I made in the round games, please forgive me Kay, was to give the result between Kay and a certain male Member who would prefer to remain anonymous. Kay had a resounding victory over this chap but I dare not mention his name for fear of retribution. There you go Bas, no names mentioned.

This week kicked off with the Men's Monthly Jackpot Pairs Monday and then no Bowls until the Live Life sponsored Nominated Triples Thursday.

There is Social/Barefoot Bowls Friday as usual. Sunday's visit from the Sunshine Coast Social Club was a great success and both the Bowls and the Lunch were thoroughly enjoyed by all present. Many thanks to all the helpers.

Finally, don't forget the Christmas Break-up on Saturday, December 10th. Still not too late to get your names down for a great meal and a thoroughly enjoyable evening.

It was Grand Final! And the Whistlers were so excited to be there. Weather was great at Maroochydoore, and we all had great games.

Starting with 3 6-5 sets, we and Caloundra Classics knew it was going to be very long day. And of course, we had to hold our breath until the last set. But we were just 1 game short to claim victory.

Score was 36 to 37 games, 4 sets each.

But very well done to Donna Kuskopf, Aki Lepper, Brenda Warner, Maree Hooley and Liz Mellish for a great finish this season. And thanks to Pauline, Annie S, Annie B, Sue, Claire for the support on the final day.

Last week the LobStars were also playing in the Thursday night grand final against the Vixens. Nerves were a factor at the start but Annie and Pauline came home strong. Unfortunately not strong enough going down 6-5 in the last set.

Christmas party this Saturday commencing at 5:30 with local band "Third Time Lucky".

Golf News

We must thank our sponsors: the Purple Palate for the Thursday, and Mitre 10 Garden Centre & Magnolia Lane Gift Shop for the Sunday. These businesses make the whole event much more enjoyable.

Maleny Golf AGM

It will be held at the Maleny Bowls Club (next to the hotel) at 7.30pm on Thursday, 1st December. If you would like to become involved in running the Club, please request a nomination form from pbe@aapt.net.au.

There are many ways members can help the club achieve its objective of building a golf course. These include volunteering at the driving range, joining working bees, serving on a subcommittee or on the main committee.

Pitch and Putt Competitions.

In addition to the usual Thursday 4pm competition, we are starting a similar Sunday competition commencing at 9am. The cost is $5 with a $15 and $10 prize voucher at Purple Palate for winner and runner-up respectively.

The entry fee also entitles you to a 40 ball bucket (worth $5) to use either before or after the competition if you wish. The competitions are proving to be successful social events as well as a chance to improve skills around the green under friendly conditions. Tea, coffee and cool drinks are available.

Driving Range and Practice Green.

These are in very good condition - don't be fooled by the hot weather. Often there is a cooling SE breeze at the driving range. On hot days, conditions are very pleasant during the early morning and later afternoon. Enquiries: jtwalters@inet.net.au

The Range Croquet Club awards Life membership to Vince Carberry

Last Sunday Vince Carberry was awarded life membership of the Range Croquet Club for his long years of service to the club and to the sport of croquet in all its forms.

Vice president Nick Cram took the opportunity on behalf of all members to present the award at the club's Christmas break up lunch.

Nick said, "Vince is a very deserving recipient of this award - as long time president of the Maleny club, a division one player and coach.

Vince has already dedicated many, many years of service to furthering the sport, and the facilities in Maleny for all to enjoy".

Croquet came into Vince's life after spending 50 years pursuing his first sporting love, cricket, for which he was acknowledged when he received the Sportsman of the Year Award in 2009 at the inaugural Maleny Sports Awards Dinner.

Vince joins patron Ted Singleton, Bob Gorbould and Alice Crombie as the only other life members of The Range Croquet Club.

Demountable Toilet Block for Sale

One of our members points out in last week's Range News (Page 43 on the top middle of the page) there is an ad for a demountable toilet block for sale.

He was quick to realise that maybe this could be what one of the sporting groups might be able to use as part of their facilities.

It is described as 2.5 m x 2.5 m - 2 seater with one urinal and one basin and described as being in good condition.

The asking price is $4,500 or near offer. Inquiries can be made by ringing 0429 061 444.

Unfortunately, the advertisement does not say where the unit is located or how it might be transported to another site.

Any organisation looking to improve their facilities can make inquiries to see if this unit could assist.

Thanks Chris for the tip!

Why be a volunteer?

*It's not for the money
It's not for the fame,
It's not for any personal gain,
It's just for the love of fellow man,
It's just to lend a helping hand,
It's just to give a tithe of self,
that's something you can't buy with wealth,
It's not medals worn with pride
It's for the feeling deep inside,
It's that reward down in your heart,
It's a feeling that you've been a part of Helping others far and near,
That makes you a Volunteer.*
